Problems

1. What is your dream job?

Job:

Company to work for:

Responsibilities:

A cartoon illustration of a woman with long brown hair, wearing a white and blue plaid shirt and blue pants, sitting on a green and yellow striped beach towel. She is wearing a large, light-colored sun hat with a red ribbon and red flowers. She is using a blue laptop. In the background, there is a blue ocean, a yellow sun, and a green palm tree. A pair of blue flip-flops with white flowers is on the towel next to her.

Write down your dream job. Then create a video to talk about it without reading your note (5 minutes), and upload it on your Youtube channel.

2. You are attending a workshop and is required to fill out this form (see Figure 2).

3. Imagine that now you have achieved your dream and work as you write in your dream job. Write an email message to introduce yourself to the employees in the company. In your email, you must include your name, your position in the company, and your responsibility. You may add anything that you think should be included in your introductory email.

4. Have a look on the following scenario (see Figure 3)!

- Student A: You are Mrs Mahmoud and you work as an IT Help Desk Coordinator. You receive an e-mail from a new employer, named Shafira. Tell her when her training is and answer her questions.
- Student B: You are Shafira. You receive a call from Mrs Mahmoud in answer to your email. Make sure she answers the questions in your email.

Task: Work in pairs. One student acts as Mrs Mahmoud and the other student acts as Shafira, following the scenario written above. Swap the rules (so you will have two scenarios, one as Mrs Mahmoud and one as Shafira).

5. Ask the work of your pair for question number 1. Prepare a short talk to explain about your partner. This does not have to be included in the assignment, but you will be asked randomly in the beginning of next lecture.
